Hi .

I wanted to circle back and share a quick note on how teams similar to yours typically cut weekly status meeting times in half using our automated reporting dashboards.

You can check out how one of our clients streamlined their operations here.

Do you have 10 minutes this Thursday for a quick follow-up chat to see how this could apply to your pipeline?

Best,
Alvee Christian De Castro

Step 2: Create a Simple Sequence:

The screenshot shows the HubSpot Message templates interface. The left sidebar contains navigation links: Home, Contacts, Companies, Deals, Tasks, Marketing Emails, Segments, Workflows, and Prospecting Agent. The main content area is titled "Message templates" and includes a search bar, a filter for "Owner: Any", and a table of templates. The table has columns for Name, Owner, Date created, and Date modified. One template is listed: "Value Proposition Reminder - B2B SaaS" by ALVEE CHRISTIAN BATISLAONG DE CASTRO, created "in a few seconds". A sidebar menu on the left lists various HubSpot features, with "Sequences" highlighted under the "Sales" category. A tooltip indicates that this feature is included in Sales and Service Hub Professional.

Name	Owner	Date created	Date modified
Value Proposition Reminder - B2B SaaS	ALVEE CHRISTIAN BATISLAONG DE CASTRO	in a few seconds	in a few seconds

The screenshot shows the HubSpot Sequences interface. The left sidebar is the same as in the previous screenshot. The main content area is titled "Sequences" and includes a heading "Create a Sequence to connect with leads and customers at scale". Below this, there are three bullet points: "Book more meetings with personalized, multi-touch sequences", "Streamline and automate repetitive sales activities to make sure no lead slips through the cracks", and "Test messaging and track performance to consistently and predictably build pipeline". A "Create a sequence" button is visible. On the right, there is a diagram showing a sequence of steps: a red envelope icon, a blue phone icon, a blue "in" icon, and a blue speech bubble icon. A "Trial Tip" box at the bottom right states: "Breeze Assistant can help you get started. Ask Breeze Assistant questions about Sequences or get step-by-step help building for your use case." It includes links for "Learn More" and "Build a Sequence".
